

Homelessness and Mental Health

Training Course Details

About This Course

This course covers vital theory and practical techniques for all aspects of homelessness and mental health.

Who Should Attend?

Anybody who works in the field of homelessness, those who work with vulnerable people and anybody with an interest in this subject.

Course Objectives

To provide students with an understanding of the issues relating to homelessness and the effect of this on mental health. In addition, the course will give practical solutions to a very real problem.

Course Overview

Welcome and introduction, followed by:

- The meaning of homelessness
- The effects on mental health
- Risk factors
- Statistics and homelessness issues
- How to identify potential mental health problems
- Practical solutions to issues

Practical scenarios to recap key points

Assessment – written and practical

Course Details

Duration 1 day
Certificate Certificate of completion provided

Course Title Homelessness and Mental Health
Course Ref VP003HMH

Additional Information

This course can be adapted to be service-specific.